Dear Musician,

It is once again time for the Musichorale Scholarship Contests. I would appreciate it if you could completely fill out the attached form if you have not filled one out before. If you have previously completed the attached form, please make any corrections or additions to it along with specifying any days that you would be able to help judge our contests. As you know, finding qualified judges for these contests is very difficult. Any assistance in helping me find more judges would be greatly appreciated. Just complete the back of the form with the names and addresses of anyone that you think is qualified and would be interested. We are also continuing to provide a list of accompanists to any contestant who asks for one so, if you know of any accompanists that might be interested, please include their name and address on the back of the form.

The information below describes the four scholarship contests that are being sponsored this year. Please read the information over and send in your reply by January 13, 2010. I hope that you will be able to share your musical expertise once again. I am looking forward to hearing from you soon.
